Four Questions Of State Interest--State Judiciary, Republican Delegates, Milwaukee Municipal, And Local Saloon Contests.

Janesville Man's Chances For Supreme Bench Thought To Be Good--Will State Have Split Republican Delegation?

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., April 4.—Four elements of intense interest present themselves in the election which is to be held in Wisconsin next Tuesday--state judiciary, Milwaukee municipal, republican national delegates, and local saloon contests.

The canvass for the election to the supreme bench in succession to the late Chief Justice J. H. Cassoday has been marked with extreme bitterness, even religious lines having been drawn between the two leading candidates, R. M. Bashford of Madison and John Barnes of Milwaukee.

Mr. Barnes is a Roman Catholic and Mr. Bashford is a brother of a bishop in the Methodist Episcopal church, and friends of both candidates, probably "fool friends," to be sure, have made use of these facts. A Methodist publication has mentioned the bishop's brother with suggestive approval, and the Catholics appear to be fully apprised of the fact that one of their number is a candidate.

The fact that old William R. Taylor of "granular movement fame," the former reformer, now an inmate of a home for the aged in this county, is the father-in-law of Mr. Bashford, has also been injected into the campaign in a subversive manner, as it is to describe Mr. Bashford as an unfeeling father of an aged relative. The best friends of both candidates appear to regret these elements of the campaign.

Mr. Bashford is the sitting judge, having been appointed for the vacancy soon after the death of Chief Justice Cassoday, and friends of Governor Davidson naturally desire to see the stamp of approval placed upon the executive appointee, and also for the reason that Mr. Barnes quit his place at the head of the railroad rate commission because the governor signed the two-cent passenger fare bill after the rate commission had declared that a fare of less than two and a half cents a mile would not stand in the courts.

William Ruger of Janesville, acknowledged one of the very best lawyers of the state, is also a candidate, with decidedly good chances of success in the present mix-up.

The local fight in Milwaukee, between Thomas J. Pringle, republican, and David S. Rose, democrat, is a hot one, with opinion divided as to the outcome. Stories to the effect that the republican primary fight has left much lack of harmony, indicate the probability of the return to power of Rose, who was mayor of the state metropolis for four terms prior to the election of R. M. Becker two years ago.

The contest for delegates to the national republican convention is not fierce and the claim of the "La Follette" managers that the delegation will be sold for the senator has stronger probability of being borne out by results than the claim that half the delegates will be for Taft. The seeming impossibility of La Follette being a substantial factor in the national convention has operated to keep some of his supporters at home, but it is assumed that most of the delegates will be for him from this state.

Many local fights are being waged on the question of "license or no license" and "law enforcement." The anti-saloon movement that is sweeping many states has touched Wisconsin less strongly than in the south, but progress toward regulation and prohibition has been so rapid here that the brewers are genuinely alarmed and have organized two movements of defense.

One is known as the "liberty league" and has as its slogan the old cry of personal liberty. A more effective organization has for its purpose the cleansing of the saloon business from within. The brewers have determined that the best way to head off prohibition is to eliminate the low dives and disreputable places and by so doing take away the strongest arguments of the prohibitionists.

In Madison a law enforcement campaign is being made against the present mayor, J. C. Schubert. Rev. W. J. McKay, a retired Methodist minister, now in the real estate business, is demanding the closing of the saloons on Sundays.

While the many local contests, the fight in Milwaukee and the state judiciary and national delegate issues will bring out large numbers of voters, the vote is expected to be much lighter than at autumnal elections.

race for the Presidential nomination on the republican and democratic tickets respectively will be active on the stump during the week. Secretary Taft, who has been in the Middle West for several days, will penetrate as far as Nebraska and will be heard in Omaha and other large cities.

Mr. Bryan is scheduled to spend four days of the week touring New York State. This will keep him there until the eve of the Democratic state convention and is intended to give encouragement to his followers who will take part in that gathering. It is hardly expected, however, that it will result in any very strong endorsement of the Nebraskaan, from the state convention.

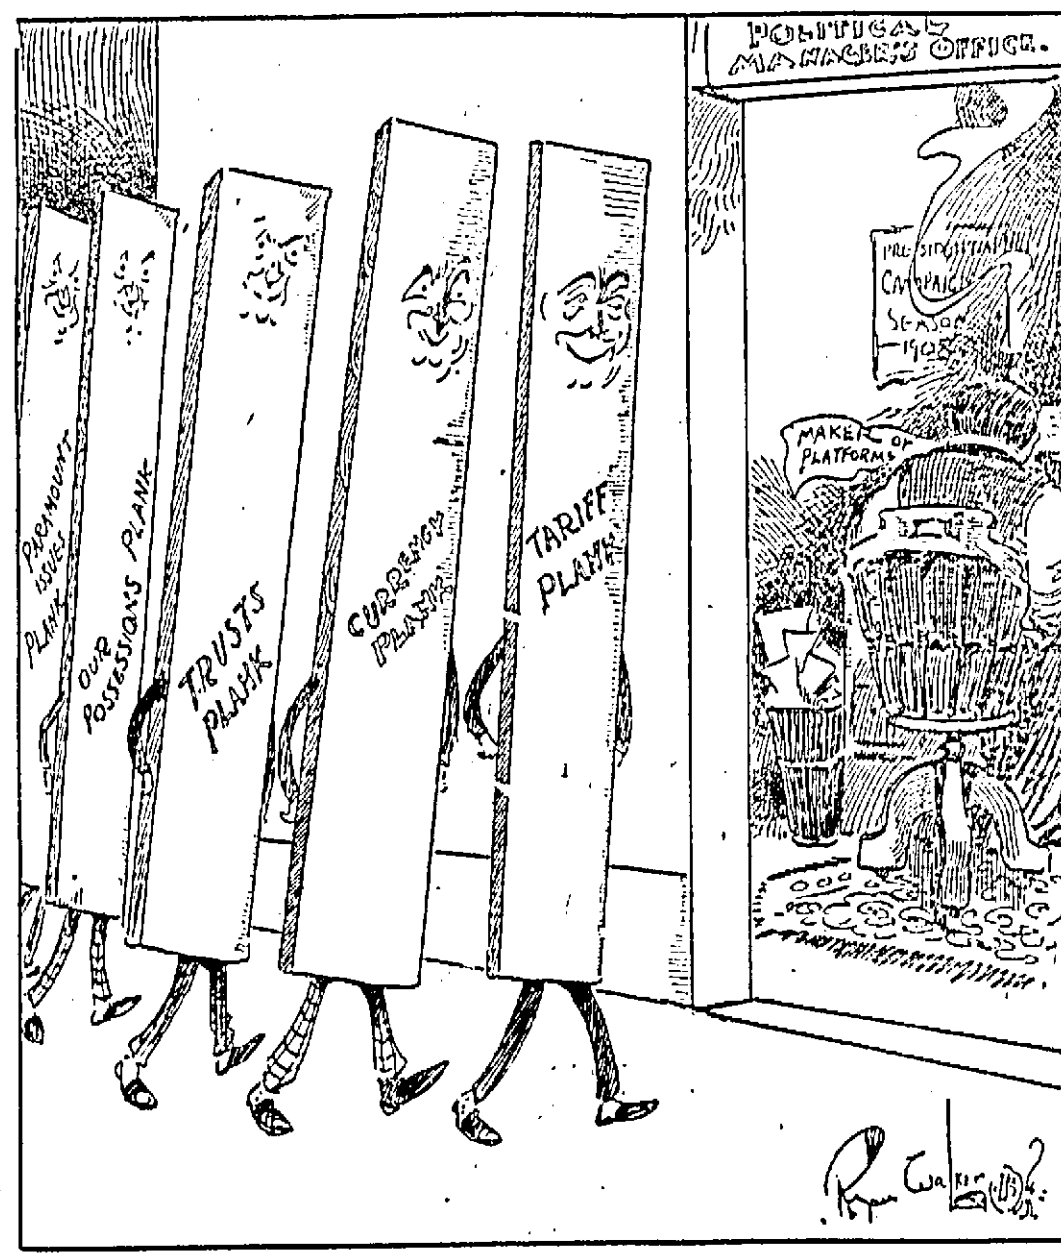

Governor Johnson of Minnesota, another of the candidates for the Presidential nomination, will take a trip south for the purpose of speaking at the dedication of the Minnesota monument on Shiloh battlefield. Before returning home it is expected he will be heard in political addresses at several points.

Events of the week that will interest followers of sports and athletics will be the fight between Jimmy Britt and Puckie McFarland in San Francisco, the amateur court tennis championships in New York, and the opening of the baseball season of the South Atlantic League.

A carnival and pageant in celebration of the tenth anniversary of the first introduction of automobiles in New York will open that city and Monday and continue through the week.

ANTI-SALOON FIGHT KEEN IN STATE OF ILLINOIS

Over Two Thousand Cities To Vote On Prohibition Question on Tuesday.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., April 4.—The hottest and most extensive fight the prohibitionists have ever made in Illinois is nearing the finish. Next Tuesday nearly 2,000 cities and villages will vote on the question of "wet or dry." The contest is being waged in some portion of every State except twelve, most of which went dry last November.

In some of the cities the fight has been carried on with an intensity seldom equal, and the lines are being so closely drawn between the friends of the saloon and the foes that for the time being activities in the big political parties have been brought to a practical standstill in order that they may not conflict with the strife over prohibition.

Every city of Central Illinois, with the exception of Peoria, will vote upon the prohibition question. The largest of these is Springfield, the capital of the state, where the 14,000 registered voters will rally to the polls to decide whether or not the 210 saloons of the city shall be closed. As Springfield is one of the largest cities in the North to take up this big issue and put it to a vote, people of other cities, not only throughout Illinois but adjoining states are watching for the result.

A month or so ago few believed the Anti-Saloon League in Springfield could muster a force of any proportions but as the campaign has developed the anti-saloon element became so strong and aggressive that the brewery and saloon interests are said to have become frightened. They have collected funds to defend the saloons and have scattered pro-saloon literature from one end of the town to the other.

In all the other cities and towns the campaign has been equally interesting. The clergymen are denouncing the liquor traffic and calling upon their congregations to unite in voting out of existence. Mass meetings are being held nightly in churches and public halls. Streets are crowded with people in the public squares, and the women and children are also actively engaged in fighting the saloons. Parades with banners are a feature of the campaign by women and children in many of the towns. A house to house canvass by the members of the W. C. T. U., accompanied, in most instances, by little children who distribute leaflets antagonizing the saloon and who contribute their childish plea, is another feature attracting attention.

In nearly a dozen of the larger cities the saloon fight has developed such bitterness that personal friendships are being split, business is divided and political lines are being obliterated. In Joliet the contest is so bitter that the business men are split into two hostile camps that are so much at loggerheads that trade is suffering. Merchants who are fighting for a dry town are being boycotted by the brewery and distillery interests.

Prohibition speakers from outside have been brought into the state by the Anti-Saloon League and the prohibition state committee, which are in charge of the temperance crusade. Among them are Governor Harty of Indiana, Governor Hoch of Kansas and Southern Wright, the prohibition leader in the Georgia legislature.

The Personal Liberty League, recently organized by the opponents of prohibition, is equally active, and has sent out tons of literature. In the saloons in some of the larger cities placards are posted showing empty store buildings in Kansas City, Kas. Over them is the caption, "Due to the expulsion of the saloons. The cameras cannot lie." The farmers are being appealed to by posters showing the decrease in the consumption of grain if the saloons are abolished.

Outside of Chicago only four of the large cities of Illinois are without a fight over the prohibition question. They are Quincy, Ottawa, Peoria and East St. Louis. In the latter city the campaign was kept off the ballot because the petition was filed with the city clerk instead of with the election commission.

In Springfield, as before stated, the fight has been most intense. The state capital has always been a more or less open city so far as the liquor interests are concerned. For that reason the prohibition forces have centered their heaviest artillery on that city and have made it the scene of their most aggressive warfare. In Cairo, Danville, Washington, Rockford, Alton and other cities the methods of conducting the fight are typical of those in use in Springfield. The temperance people, according to the statement issued today by Alonzo E. Wilson, chairman of the Prohibition State committee, are well organized, hopeful and enthusiastic, and are determined that the saloon shall go. Chairman Wilson is confident that four out of every five of the cities and towns where the fight is being waged will go "dry." The outlook is most encouraging in regard to nearly all of the smaller places. In Springfield, Alton, Moline and other of the larger cities the outlook is encouraging, but the result more doubtful.

RUSSIAN LION SAYS GOTCH IS BEST MAN

There is No Man in All England Who Has a Chance With Your Man Gotch.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, April 4.—Frank Gotch, who last night wrestled from George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," the title of champion wrestler of the world, showed little effects of the two-hour battle today. He declared his willingness to give Hackenschmidt a return match at any time. Hackenschmidt said today: "There's no man in all England who has a chance with your man Gotch. He's a king in his class and I have no desire to wrestle him again. My feet gave out. I have trained against a too bold and had strained the muscles of my legs. I knew I had no chance, therefore I conceded the championship." Hackenschmidt looked as though he had been through a prize fight. The left side of his head was badly swollen, his left eye inflamed and the eyelids swollen and heaved. He said this was done by Gotch's thumb.

FISHERMEN CAUGHT BY BREAKING ICE

Peashtigo Harbor Fishermen Had Difficulty in Reaching Shore in Safety.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Marquette, Wis., April 4.—Four Peashtigo Harbor fishermen, Hans Ophol, Wm. Johnson, Nicholas Nelson, and Chas. Lohas, had a terrible experience while lifting nets on the ice south of Peashtigo Point Thursday afternoon. The field of ice began to separate into small pieces and started to go out into the lake. The current was so swift that the four men were being carried out rapidly and with apparently no chances of getting back, the ice breaking into small pieces increased their danger. Fortunately they had with them some ice-cutters and these they used to detach small pieces in the ice field. Each man in this way managed to cut out enough of the ice to float and succeeded in crossing the open spaces and finally reaching the shore last night nearly thirty-six hours after the accident happened.

They were blown up against the brick wall.

CHARLES K. MILLER AND HIS WONDERFUL BIBLE CLASS.

The Charles Miller Bible class of Franklin, Pa., is one of the most remarkable "religious" organizations in the world. This Sunday school class totals 1500 members, and is the largest class in the world in proportion to the field it draws upon. It has been in existence since 1874, in which year Gen. Miller was elected superintendent of the class, which then had a membership of 75. He has held his office through all the intervening years, having been continuously re-elected, until he is rounding out his 4th year of continuous service.

At the entrance to the Sunday school room is a large blackboard with space for over a thousand numbers and instead of calling the roll, a lengthy process in a school of such a size, each attendant places a chalk mark opposite his number, which indicates his presence.

The general is a civil war veteran and has been successful in business so that now he is well off. In public speaking or writing, as in all he undertakes, General Miller has the faculty of imparting new things in his inimitable way. It is said that the general will make any sacrifice rather than miss any of his Sunday services and has been known to charter an entire train in order to get home Saturday night and be with his class Sunday.

of money for his personal holding in this state.

The Congo river was discovered by the Portuguese navigators about the same time as was America. For centuries this remote untouched, by civilization, and when Belgium undertook the handling of this state under King Leopold II, it was in the same chaotic condition as when discovered in 1482. The slave trade thrived, but this was the only commerce of the people.

The Congo Free State was born of the Congo International Association, founded by His Majesty Leopold II in 1883, while Stanley was in his service. Prior to the legal foundation of the state the association had obtained recognition of its sovereignty. Among other things embodied in the general act of this association was freedom of trade throughout the Congo basin and free navigation of the Congo river and its tributaries. King Leopold undertook the gigantic task, under the association, of colonizing and civilizing this state. In 1885, when the conference was in session, all of the powers save Belgium and the far-sighted Leopold refused to undertake this enterprise. Now, twenty-three years later, after Leopold has attained such marked success, jealousy has crept in and today there is open dispute as to the King's possession in this Congo Free State.

Under King Leopold's regime the moral tone of the people has been elevated, slavery has ceased, free trade has been established and the vast resources of the country augmented. The Congo river drains a much larger territory than the Mississippi river and is second in size only to the Amazon. The width of the river varies from one to twenty miles and precipitates into the Atlantic ocean about 2,000,000 cubic feet of water each second. It drains a fertile valley in the tropical region so luxuriant in growth that the product activity of this territory is amazing to one in the United States. The production of India rubber constitutes one of its chief industries, but the soil is capable of producing almost anything suitable to tropical climates. It is no question but that some day this Congo Free State, so little appreciated today, will be one of the great producing sections of the world.

The Lost Customer.

"It was a rainy day," said the book-seller, "and the wet shoes and dripping umbrellas of customers had made the floor quite wet and slippery just inside the store door. All our clerks happened to be in the back part of the place when the door opened and a large and very stout woman hurried in. Just as the door swung shut behind her she slipped and fell flat upon the floor. Before any of us could reach her she picked herself up with surprising quickness for a woman of her size, gave a stony stare all around the room, and then without uttering a word, turned around, opened the door and walked out in the most dignified manner. None of us has ever seen the woman since, and I suppose her pride will prevent her from ever coming into the store where her first appearance was so mortifying."

Economical Commodore.

It was the custom in the days of our old navy for the men to bring to the must all worn-out articles which were to be inspected, handed in, and exchanged for new. The drummer had applied for so many drum-heads that the commodore felt sure he was being imposed upon, and one day set himself to watch while the band was playing. As one rattling martial air followed another, his anger increased perceptibly, until he burst forth in uncontrollable rage: "There now, confound you! I see why you use so many drum-heads! Don't drum in the middle of it all the time. Drum all over that drum, I tell you!"

Umbrella an Elephant.

"There's no luck in finding an umbrella," remarked the nervous-looking man. "You can't carry it when you do find one. At least I can't. I found this one the other day, and ever since then when I'm on the car I imagine that every one on the car is looking at me and getting ready to ask me about my umbrella. If I ever find another one I'll hire some boy to tow it again for me."

There are many strange possibilities of disaster hidden in the holds of vessels, though the seaworthiness of modern ships minimizes them. CARNEGIE PENSION FUND EXPANDED

STATE UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS MAY BE BENEFICIARIES.

$5,000,000 MORE GIVEN

Iron-Master Makes Big Increase in the Amount Whose Interest Is Donated to Veteran Educators.

New York, Apr. 4.—Announcement was made Friday night that Andrew Carnegie would add $5,000,000 to the fund of the Carnegie Foundation, or whatever sum might be necessary to include as pension beneficiaries eligible professors of state universities. No provision was made for this class of educators in the original gift, for the reason, stated by Mr. Carnegie at the time, that the donor thought it possible that such institutions might prefer that their relations should continue exclusively with the state from which their chief support was derived. This view was not taken by the National Association of State Universities, which in the year following the establishment of the foundation petitioned the trustees for admittance to the benefits of the retiring allowance system.

Original Fund Too Small. It was then found that the earnings of the original fund of $10,000,000 were exhausted through the outlet already planned, and that if the facilities of all state universities were to be benefited, an additional $5,000,000 would be required. The situation was placed formally before Mr. Carnegie by Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Association of State Universities, on March 24 last, and on that same day Mr. Carnegie replied that the money would be forthcoming for any state institution whose application received the approval of the legislature and governor of its state. The additional donation will be in five per cent. bonds, providing an added annual income of a quarter of a million dollars, and a total for yearly disbursement of $750,000.

The Carnegie Foundation was established by Mr. Carnegie on April 27, 1905, with a gift of a trust fund of $10,000,000 in five per cent. first mortgage bonds of the United States Steel corporation. The revenue of the fund provides pensions for teachers of universities, colleges and technical schools in the United States, Canada and Newfoundland, who are retired after 25 years' service or having reached the age of 65 years have taught 15 years preceding.

Mr. Carnegie's Letter. Dr. Pritchett Friday night made public Mr. Carnegie's letter promising the further gift and a statement regarding the action of the National Association of State Universities. Under date of March 31, 1908, Mr. Carnegie wrote to Dr. Pritchett:

"Dear Sir: Your favor of to-day informs me of the desire of the professors of state universities to be embraced in the pension fund, as shown by a resolution unanimously adopted by the national association.

"I beg now to say that should the governing boards of any state university apply for participation in the fund and the legislature and governor of the state approve such application, it will give me great pleasure to increase the fund to the extent necessary to admit them. I understand from you that if all the state universities should apply and be admitted five millions more of five per cent. bonds would be required, making the fund $15,000,000 in all.

"From the numerous letters I have received from pensioners and their wives and the warm approval of the press and public, I am satisfied that this fund is and must be for all time, productive of lasting good, not only to the recipients but to the cause of higher education.

"Most grateful am I to be privileged as trustee of this wealth to devote it to such use. Truly yours, Andrew Carnegie."

Panama Counts on Uncle Sam.

Panama, Apr. 4.—A meeting called by the government to discuss the boundary question between Colombia and Panama and the occupation of the town of Jurado by Colombian troops was held at the Presidential palace Friday. The general opinion was that the United States government cannot refuse to comply with its obligations as specified in the canal treaty to guarantee Panama's integrity, which is now menaced, and compel Colombia to evacuate Jurado and submit the whole matter to the arbitration of a third power.

"MET'S" BIG CONTRIBUTION

COMPANY GAVE $300,000 TO 1900 CAMPAIGN FUND.

Thomas F. Ryan Explains to Grand Jury the Ferry Deal in New York.

New York, Apr. 4.—The sum of approximately $700,000 involved in the Wall & Cortland Street Ferry Railway company deal which has been under investigation by the grand jury, included a political contribution of $500,000 with interest, made by the Metropolitan Street Railway company in the presidential campaign of 1900, according to an explanation said to have been given to the grand jury by Thomas F. Ryan.

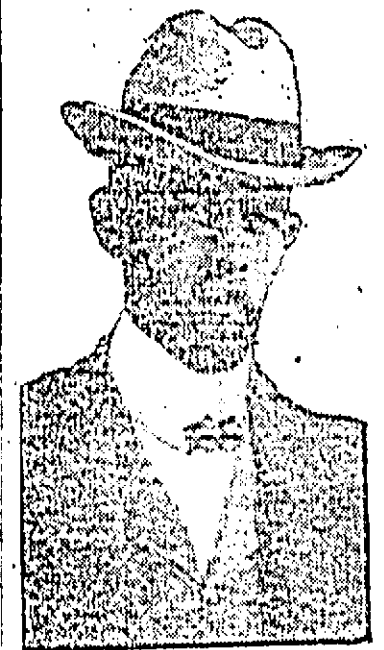

Mr. Ryan has been a witness before the grand jury in connection with this case and it was learned Friday that the jury soon will hand up a presentment containing an outline of Mr. Ryan's explanation of the deal. He said that when it was decided that the Metropolitan Street Railway company should make a big contribution to the 1900 campaign fund, a further decision was made to make it through Mr. Ryan, W. C. Whitney, Thomas Dolan, P. A. H. Widener and William L. Elkins. There was a further understanding that they were to be reimbursed by the Metropolitan for their contributions, with interest at five per cent. Consequently the five men sent their personal checks for $100,000 each to George J. Hahn & Sons of Philadelphia, by whom the money was paid over to the campaign committee. It was said that no mention is made in Mr. Ryan's testimony as to which political party received the money.

It was two years after the contribution was made, according to Mr. Ryan, before an opportunity was afforded to repay Mr. Ryan and his associates the sums they advanced. Then came the opportunity to purchase the Wall & Cortland company. In making the payment to Anthony Brady, by the simple method of adding five times $100,000, with interest thereon at five per cent. for a little over two years, Ryan, Elkins, Widener, Dolan and Whitney were handed back their campaign contributions, made in 1900. The amount each received, according to Mr. Ryan's explanation, was $111,000.

P. G. HOLDEN.

(By Special Correspondent.) Des Moines, Iowa, April 4.—By preaching the testing of seed corn Prof. P. G. Holden of Iowa State Agricultural college at Ames succeeded a year ago in increasing the corn harvest in Iowa a million bushels.

Mr. Holden has since been placed in charge of an extension work for the state in connection with the college and is now busily engaged directing the instruction of farmers throughout the state in the selecting of their seed corn and testing it before planting. It is expected he will greatly increase the crop this year. Prof. Holden has opposed to importation of seed corn from other territories. He says a seed that is good in one climate and soil is not necessarily adapted to the Iowa soil. He urges the development of seed at home adapted to soil and climate and the besting of the crop by carefully testing the seed and getting good results.

Governor Cummins has just appointed Professor Holden as chairman of the committee to install the Iowa exhibition at the big corn show in Omaha this year.

PUTS UP WATSON AND WILLIAMS

PEOPLE'S PARTY NOMINATES PRESIDENTIAL TICKET.

BRYAN FORCES DEFEATED

Nebraska and Minnesota Delegations. Bolt the Convention—Nominee for Vice-President an Indiana Man.

St. Louis, Apr. 4.—For president of the United States—Thomas E. Watson of Georgia.

For vice-president of the United States—Samuel Williams of Indiana. The above ticket was nominated Friday by the People's party convention, after two stormy sessions, throughout which the Nebraska and Minnesota delegations, working in the interest of William J. Bryan, strove desperately to bring about an adjournment of the convention until after nominations had been made by the Democratic and Republican parties.

Hoplessly outnumbered and without any chance whatever of gaining their object, the Nebraska men fought desperately to the last, and when Jay W. Forest of Albany, N. Y., mounted the platform to place Watson in nomination, they withdrew from the convention, attended by the Minnesota delegation, which consisted, however, of only one man, T. J. Weighman. If Bryan is nominated at Denver the men who walked out of the convention will support him and they declare that the Populists of Nebraska will do so to a man.

Nebraskans in a Corner. The downfall of Nebraska came swiftly, in the afternoon, and into a pit they themselves had dugged the delegates from Nebraska tumbled. They were filibustering along in cheerful fashion when J. A. Parker of Louisville begged leave to ask "a couple of questions" of the Nebraskans.

He desired to know if they were working for the nomination of Bryan. They said they were not. He then read from Mr. Bryan's paper a plank from the Nebraska Populist state convention endorsing Bryan, and wanted to know if they stood by it, or by their statement just made. The Nebraska men were backed into a corner. They could fight, but they could not escape. Parker insisted upon a categorical answer which Nebraska would not give.

The debate on the proposition to postpone the convention and the discussion of the phraseology of the money plank of the platform consumed the greater part of the day.

Who the Candidates Are. Thomas E. Watson, the presidential nominee, is well known throughout the country, and his political life is familiar history.

Samuel W. Williams, the candidate for vice-president, is a resident of Vincennes, Ind., where he has practiced law for many years. He is 62 years of age, and has always been a more or less active participant in politics. He was at one time a Democratic member of the Indiana legislature, but has been identified with the Populist party since its creation.

At a meeting of the new national committee James H. Ferris of Joliet, Ill., was re-elected chairman and Jay W. Forest of Albany, N. Y., was chosen vice-chairman.

Former School Treasurer Sued.

East St. Louis, Ill., Apr. 4.—The board of trustees of the East St. Louis public school district Friday filed a suit for $500,000 against Daniel Sullivan, former treasurer of the district in the Belleville circuit court. It is alleged that his accounts show a discrepancy of $5,000.

MRS. CHARLEMAGNE TOWER.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—Mrs. Charlemagne Tower wife of the American ambassador to Germany, is the one American woman who can gain the ear of the kaiser. Ambassador Tower and his wife are great favorites in Germany society. They have devoted much time and money to the gaining of his ear and today Mrs. Tower not only leads the social diplomatic life in the German capital, but is in close touch with the emperor himself. It is in this way that she has gained his ear in the trouble which involved the succession of Kaiser Wilhelm II to the ambassadorship of Germany. Rumor has it that Ambassador Tower and his wife are not

The address was a carefully prepared discourse on the Philippines, and dealt especially with the recent religious questions in the islands. The other speech was informal in character and was delivered before the Hamilton club in the Congress hotel at 10:30.

Springfield to Vote on Saloons.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT

A lone passenger stood on the bulkhead out in San Carlos bay two miles from shore, waiting for the little steamer "Gladys," which piles between Fort Meyers and Punta Gorda, Florida.

As the steamer touched the dock, he stepped aboard with arms full of packages of lettuce and garden truck, and waited to see two or three cases of tomatoes safely stowed on deck.

His face was tanned to a copper color, and he would have passed for a deckhand but for his black coat and stiff collar, which buttoned behind giving him a clerical appearance.

He was a genial sociable man and soon on friendly terms with the little group of passengers. Inclined to talk his history was soon an open book, and proved to be of peculiar interest, because he was a Wisconsin rector, transferred by his bishop to the south on account of failing health.

For two years he had been engaged in missionary work among the Natchez of the islands and the Seminole Indians over in the Everglades country.

He lived close to nature in a little hut at the head of Sanibel Island and cultivated a garden, and once a week carried the produce to Arcadia, a little town 70 miles away where he supplied a church on Sunday.

He said, "I want to devote all my time to the garden, and have tried several times to resign, but the church went hear to it, and so I am compelled to keep on preaching."

Asked what he thought of the people, he said: "Oh, they are good people, but the natives are largely colored or crackers, and the most of them either Methodists or Baptists. They have a creed down here which recognizes only four sins, swearing, drinking, dancing and card-playing. The creed is so simple that it is easily remembered, and the most of them are loyal."

Then he went on to talk about prohibition in the south and said, "Many people have an idea that prohibition means temperance, but it doesn't. I know plenty of people who are total abstainers, but who are so intemperate in many other ways that they are worse than the man who takes an occasional drink. You can't make people temperate by passing prohibitory laws."

The Rev. Stahley had discovered, in his work among the islands of the gulf, a fact that many people fail to recognize, namely, that more than statutory law is necessary to good morals and upright living.

the vile stuff that he was compelled to buy. Boarders in the same house stocked up on bottled goods at the nearest drugstore, without the aid of a physician's prescription.

The temperance movement throughout the south is a good thing, however, for it has closed many low dives, and made it so difficult for the colored man to get drink, that he has become by force a total abstainer.

The city of Rockford has long been noted for a well regulated city, and for the past few years the lid has been on so tight that all bars were closed from Saturday night until Monday morning.

Today the city is in the throes of a no-license campaign, and on Tuesday next the people are to vote on the question. Should the movement carry, it will be a sorry day for Rockford, for in place of law and order will follow a reign of lawlessness such as the city has never experienced.

A city the size of Rockford, whether in the north or south, will have its drink and no law can prevent it. In place of the law-abiding and well regulated saloon, will come the lawless dive and brothel.

Janesville is not called upon to vote upon the license question, but care should be taken to elect men who will favor the enforcement of law and order, without fear or favor.

The Rev. Stahley, engaged in missionary work among the islands of the gulf, is living not only close to nature, but close to the hearts of a people who enjoy but little in the way of social advantages, or church privileges.

He says that the time will come when church creeds will melt away, and when the common brotherhood of man will be recognized in one strong and united organization which will be neither Protestant nor Catholic.

This may seem like a far-fetched vision, yet not impossible of accomplishment. People are very much alike, the world over, and a large majority of them aspire to do right.

The question of creed is of less importance than the question of principles. The golden rule is recognized by people of all creeds and no creed, and the question of how to live, is interesting more people today than ever before.

When the importance of this problem is fully appreciated there is no occasion to worry about intemperance, for a well ordered life means a temperate life.

THE SUPREME JUDGESHIP

The vacancy on the supreme bench caused by the death of the late Judge Cassoday was of peculiar significance to the people of Janesville and Rock county, because of the close relations sustained, and when the name of William Ruger was mentioned as a candidate for the place so long held by Judge Cassoday, ten people were united in offers of support.

Local pride in a home candidate for high office is natural, but the candidacy of Mr. Ruger is of broader significance, for not only at home, but throughout the state his ability is recognized.

For many years Mr. Ruger has enjoyed the reputation of being one of the best corporation lawyers in the state. His briefs and arguments before the supreme court, where he has practiced extensively, have attracted wide attention, and his brother attorneys in all parts of the state, do not hesitate to say that he is thoroughly well equipped for the office of supreme judge.

His fitness and ability no one questions, and the only argument used against him is his age, and that is no argument at all. He is in the prime of mature manhood so far as mental vigor and activity is concerned, and with rare good judgment, developed through years of the experience, he is better qualified for the responsible position than a younger man could possibly be.

The senate of the United States is noted for men who have ripened through the years until they have reached the age of full-fledged maturity whose judgment and whose comeliness are the features which give strength and solidity to the highest law-making body in the land.

Mr. Ruger would be considered a young man in the senate, and his age and experience command him to a seat on the supreme bench of the state where he has so long resided.

The voters of Janesville and Rock county will be glad to honor him with loyal support, for they know his worth and appreciate his ability. If elected, as he should be, the state will be honored by one of the best judges that ever occupied a place on the supreme bench.

Try it in Janesville.

South West Lima. April 2.—One of the most pleasant events of the season took place Wednesday evening, March 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schoelkopf, when their daughter, Cora, was united in marriage to Wm. Wadke. Miss Rosa, sister of the bride, presided at the piano and at precisely 7 o'clock the young couple took their places under a pretty green arch erected for the occasion. The Rev. Odo of White-water spoke the words that united them as man and wife. The ceremony was witnessed by about 150 invited guests. The bride looked charming in a cream colored natural Japanese kimono, elaborately trimmed with silk chiffon and applique, she also wore the customary wreath and veil and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The groom wore the conventional black. They were attended by Miss Caroline and George Schoelkopf and Miss Emma Blockstack and Paul Miller, brother and sister and cousin of the young couple. The bridesmaids were becomingly attired in silk and carried sweet pea posies. The rooms were prettily decorated in green and white. After congratulations, the guests partook of a beautiful wedding feast, served by the Misses Jessie Roloff, Lillie Krantz, Tillie Brown and Augustin Krelger. The Stehke Bros. furnished music and dancing was enjoyed until the small hours of the morning, and as each of the guests reluctantly took their leave they wished Mr. and Mrs. Wadke success and happiness in life's journey. The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

DISGRUNTLED BY WORDING OF LAW
FRIENDS OF DEFEATED CANDIDATES FOR CITY MARSHAL MAY HAVE AN ELECTION
Made by Council to Test Validity of Fire and Police Commission's Actions.
From the moment it was announced that former City Marshal W. H. Appleby was to resign to accept a position under the United States government, the contest for his successor began with intense bitterness. It was the first time the council of the city of Jansville had not had entire charge of such an election. Under the special charter which the city is governed by, Jansville has thus far been practically immune from civil service rules. However, the last legislative session passed a law which was designed to cover just such cases as existed in Jansville, known as Chapter 41. This law was designed to take the election of the chief of police and chief of the fire department from the hands of the council and place it in that of the commission. This was the purpose of the law when enacted. It was carefully drawn up to meet just such conditions as existed in Jansville and will prove invalid by a decision of the court must be taken as binding.
As soon as the contest for city marshal became public friends of the different candidates began to threaten suits to test the law should their favorite be defeated at the election of the commission. Adversaries who believed they had the sole right to elect the marshal consulted with attorneys relative to their standing in the matter.
City Attorney Maxfield gave his opinion that the law was binding and that the council should ratify the action of the commission. Others differed. Particularly in the word of the law. The law states that all chiefs of police shall be named by the fire and police commission, Jansville under its charter has no office of chief of police, but calls the head of its department City Marshal. On this wording the opponents to the action of the commission have taken their stand.
Other attorneys who have closely examined the law state that the opening paragraph: "In all cities of the second and third class, however, incorporated," makes the Jansville charter null and void in this respect and that the term city marshal and chief of police can be used impartially, to mean the same office.
To test the law would be an expensive process. It would entail considerable expense to the city. It would mean a burden upon the taxpayers, which would be brought about by the political friends of the defeated candidates.
There was talk of a special meeting of the council being held last Thursday night to take action on the matter, but the deal fell through. However, there are adherents who wish to have the council elect its own chief and then thoroughly test the law by an expensive suit. Whether this be done or not is yet undecided, but there is considerable talk favoring the idea on the part of many of the members of the council.
That the public may read for themselves the law on the matter the Gazette prints the following from the laws of 1907 which is the chapter upon which the matter hinges:
No. 120, A.1. (Published April 30, 1907.
CHAPTER 41, LAWS OF 1907.
An act to amend section 959—40, section 959—41 and section 959—45, of the statutes of 1908, as amended, relating to the police and fire commissions in cities of the second and third class.
The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:
Section 1. Section 959—40, statutes of 1908, is amended to read: Section 959—40. In all cities of the second and third class, however, incorporated, there shall be a board of police and fire commissioners, consisting of five citizens, not more than three of whom shall belong to the same political party when appointed. No salary or other compensation shall be paid to any member of such board. Three members shall constitute a quorum.
Section 2. Section 959—41, statutes of 1908, is amended to read: Section 959—41. The chief of police and the chief of the fire department shall be appointed by the board of police and fire commissioners, and no person shall be appointed to any position either on the police force or on the fire department without the approval of said board. Said board shall file and keep on file with the city clerk the names of all persons who have been approved by them for appointment to the departments and under the control of said board, and said board shall make and preserve correct records of its proceedings.
Section 3. Section 959—45, statutes of 1908, as amended by chapter 178 of the laws of 1909, is amended to read: Section 959—45. (1). The chief of police and the chief of the fire department shall hold their respective offices during good behavior, subject however to suspension or removal as herein provided, at any time for cause. In suspending a chief officer the board may not act on its own initiative or upon written charges made by any qualified elector of said city and filed with the president of the board. Pending the investigation of any such charges, the board may, in its discretion, suspend any such chief officer. But no such chief officer shall be removed from his office unless written charges shall be filed and an opportunity given him to be heard in his defense. (2). Every other officer or member of either department shall be subject to suspension, for cause, by the chief of the department or by said board. If suspension is made by the chief officer he shall immediately report the same, with the cause of such suspension to the president of the board, and the board shall thereupon proceed to examine the charges against such suspended person, giving him an opportunity to be heard in his defense. After hearing the evidence the board shall determine whether said charges are sustained, and if they shall determine that said charges are not sustained such suspended person shall be immediately reinstated, but if such charges shall be sustained then said board may suspend such person temporarily or remove him from the office or employment as the good of the service may require. Any qualified elector of such city may also file written charges against any member of either department, which charges shall be investigated by the board in the same manner that charges by a chief officer are required to be investigated, and pending the investigation of any such charges the board may suspend the person against whom such charges are filed. (3). Every person against whom charges are made, shall be entitled to a copy of such charges and shall be given an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. (4). Whenever any person against whom charges are made, shall be convicted, and the board shall decide to remove such person, such removal shall be made by an order to the effect to be entered in the records of said board. (5). The decision of the board on all charges made against members of said departments shall be final and conclusive. (6). No chief officer or member of either department shall be deprived of any salary or wages for the period of time he may be suspended pending an investigation. (7). Further rules and regulations for the investigation of charges and for the removal of any member of said departments may be adopted by the board. Section 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 30, 1907.

For all forms of nervous diseases take Dr. Miles' Nervine, whether it be simple nervousness, or those nerve destroying fits and convulsions. It is a tonic for weak nerves—it will restore nervous energy, and give strength to the entire system.
"In 1898 my little daughter was stricken with paralysis of the brain. For seven long weeks she lay lifeless on the bed. At times she would rally, and again would fall. I had the services of two of our best doctors and they could do nothing for her. At times it would take two persons to hold her in bed, and for seven days and nights we had to keep her little head tucked in between the pillows. I was so weary, and to-day she is well and healthy as ever. My wife and I are completely worn out; staying up nights with our little one during her sickness, so we began taking the Nervine ourselves, and with the very best results."

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN HERE LAST NIGHT
Held the Boards at the Myers Grand Opera-House Last Evening.
Before a rather slim audience last night Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company gave a production of Mrs. Stowe's immortal story. The numerous changes in the cast were rather unusual. F. C. Willard playing the part of George Harris, a negro, in the first two acts and then taking that of Mr. St. Claire, a slave owner, later on, Ruth Elsmore taking the part of Eliza Harris, the quondam girl, in the earlier part of the performance and later appearing as Aunt Ophelia from New England, and the villain, who appeared both as Hakey, the slavecatcher, and Simon Legree. The only actors who did not change their parts were the two great blues who took the part of the bloodhounds in a way that brought applause from the audience. Tom, Davis, a negro, who took the part of Uncle Tom, gave a very good delineation of that character.

ATTENDANCE SHOWS DECIDED INCREASE
Revivalists Continue Their Meetings with Much Success in Methodist Church.
The attendance yesterday was the best of the week. Mr. Hart spoke with more force than ever before. The marvel of many is that he can speak hour after hour every day using so much nervous energy as he does and not break down. No report can give the forcefulness of his address. His illustrations are many and apt.
He tells many stories from his own experience and that of others. But there is nothing that is coarse or that will offend the most sensitive ears in anything that he says. He is very forceful in his denunciation of sin.
In this connection he speaks at times of what he calls modern faiths that are making light of sin. It is a new heart that is needed. Let God in and it comes, though it cannot be explained. The little sons of Christ think often keep others from God. He urged Christians to let God have His way, to pray much in order to be ready for the work that is before them in these meetings. The effort of the whole week has been to stir little to those who are outside. He has made it clear that if the church gets right with God, those who are not Christians will surely know it, and it will be possible to reach them. He has urged Christians to yield themselves wholly to God, most faithfully, yet most tenderly without an unkind word about any Christian or church.

ADRESSED THE MEN OF CHRIST CHURCH
Traveling Secretary of St. Andrew's Brotherhood Told About Aims and Purposes of Order.
W. A. Haxel, secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew which is to hold its national convention in Milwaukee on October 14-19, this year, addressed the men and boys of Christ Episcopal church at the parish guild hall last evening. He described the work which the organization, founded by the men of St. James' church, Chicago, twenty-four years ago, and now having a membership of 29,000, is doing and without urging the revival of the chapter which once existed here, offered suggestions as to the methods of procedure should any of his hearers after due reflection feel called upon to do some definite work in adding the spread of Christ's kingdom among men. Unlike most societies, this organization permits no social or entertainment features to be directly connected with the carrying out of its aims and purposes. While the rules of hygiene and service are binding, the service is never interpreted to mean more than a certain amount of earnest effort. Full filth or actual results are not insisted upon. Natural and rational methods and considerable respect for a man's personal religion are required and anything approaching fanaticism is discouraged. There is a period of probation before a charter is granted and only those who feel a call to do the work are expected to volunteer. Mr. Haxel stated that bishops Greer, Gayler, and Anderson and a number of eminent laymen would be among the speakers at the Milwaukee convention and urged all of his hearers as well as the women of the congregation to attend at least one of the sessions.

ADRESSED THE MEN OF CHRIST CHURCH
Traveling Secretary of St. Andrew's Brotherhood Told About Aims and Purposes of Order.
W. A. Haxel, secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew which is to hold its national convention in Milwaukee on October 14-19, this year, addressed the men and boys of Christ Episcopal church at the parish guild hall last evening. He described the work which the organization, founded by the men of St. James' church, Chicago, twenty-four years ago, and now having a membership of 29,000, is doing and without urging the revival of the chapter which once existed here, offered suggestions as to the methods of procedure should any of his hearers after due reflection feel called upon to do some definite work in adding the spread of Christ's kingdom among men. Unlike most societies, this organization permits no social or entertainment features to be directly connected with the carrying out of its aims and purposes. While the rules of hygiene and service are binding, the service is never interpreted to mean more than a certain amount of earnest effort. Full filth or actual results are not insisted upon. Natural and rational methods and considerable respect for a man's personal religion are required and anything approaching fanaticism is discouraged. There is a period of probation before a charter is granted and only those who feel a call to do the work are expected to volunteer. Mr. Haxel stated that bishops Greer, Gayler, and Anderson and a number of eminent laymen would be among the speakers at the Milwaukee convention and urged all of his hearers as well as the women of the congregation to attend at least one of the sessions.

Curiosity.
Leads to investigation and truth. What shall we do to be saved? lectures. People of faith and people of no faith flocked to hear it. Thousands are asking, "What shall I do to get rid of dandruff?" The answer is, "Kill the germ that causes the dandruff, falling hair and finally baldness; and the only thing that will do it is Newbro's Herpicide. That is the very latest discovery of the laboratory, and it is the only preparation that claims to, or that will, kill the pestiferous dandruff germ. It also is a delightful hair-dressing, free from oil or grease or sticky substances. Try it and be convinced of its actual merit. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ATTENDANCE SHOWS DECIDED INCREASE
Revivalists Continue Their Meetings with Much Success in Methodist Church.
The attendance yesterday was the best of the week. Mr. Hart spoke with more force than ever before. The marvel of many is that he can speak hour after hour every day using so much nervous energy as he does and not break down. No report can give the forcefulness of his address. His illustrations are many and apt.
He tells many stories from his own experience and that of others. But there is nothing that is coarse or that will offend the most sensitive ears in anything that he says. He is very forceful in his denunciation of sin.
In this connection he speaks at times of what he calls modern faiths that are making light of sin. It is a new heart that is needed. Let God in and it comes, though it cannot be explained. The little sons of Christ think often keep others from God. He urged Christians to let God have His way, to pray much in order to be ready for the work that is before them in these meetings. The effort of the whole week has been to stir little to those who are outside. He has made it clear that if the church gets right with God, those who are not Christians will surely know it, and it will be possible to reach them. He has urged Christians to yield themselves wholly to God, most faithfully, yet most tenderly without an unkind word about any Christian or church.
